

Press Releases April 2010

12 April 2010

The Act that passes responsibility for the determination and payment of MPs' salaries to IPSA became law today. The Act also confirms the post of IPSA Compliance Officer. This role has powers to conduct investigations of MPs in respect of expenses claims and, if appropriate, impose civil penalties and repayment directions. The Compliance Officer will also have the power to investigate complaints about IPSA.