

Press Releases March 2010

Monday 29th March

Today, the Speaker laid the new expenses scheme for MPs in the House of Commons. This was followed by a press conference hosted by the Chair of IPSA, Professor Sir Ian Kennedy. Speaking at the launch of the scheme, Sir Ian Kennedy said that the new scheme will be "fair, workable, and transparent". Read the MPs' expenses scheme in full

Press Release

Monday 22nd March

Sir Ian Kennedy gave a major speech to the Think Tank IPPR this evening. In it, he set out IPSA's vision for the future of the new expenses scheme and how to make Parliament a more efficient institution. Sir Ian Kennedy said that the scheme "must be part of and contribute to the process of restoring the public's confidence in Parliament and those who represent us there." Read the full speech

Friday 5th March

IPSA have published the responses to the public consultation on MPs' expenses. In total, we received over 2,700 responses to the consultation. Read more

5 March 2010

IPSA have published the responses to the consultation on MPs' expenses. You can read these at the following address: <http://mpexpensesconsultation.org.uk/responses/>